

Raising a Red Flag-High Risk Drugs in the ED
Kirsty Digger RN, MSN, DNS(c), CEN

Identify drugs used in the ED that are considered high risk

High risk medications in the emergency department; emergency department patients receiving high risk drugs; disorders linked with high risk drugs

Discuss possible outcomes of high risk drugs administered by nurses

Problems associated with high risk drugs; group discussion-personal experience; pharmacodynamics of high risk drugs

Synthesize knowledge of high risk drugs used in the ED with practice scenarios

Administration of high risk drugs scenarios

Describe tools for avoiding problems related to high risk drug administration in the ED

Informational tools available for high risk drugs