

Activity Title: Rock a Bye Baby- Neonatal Emergencies

Speaker: Lisa Kosits-Matamoros RN-BC, DNP, CEN, CPEN

1. Identify and describe the anatomical and physiological differences in the neonate
 - a. Systems
 - i. Thermoregulation
 - ii. Pulmonary
 - iii. Cardiovascular
 - iv. Growth and Development
2. Describe the primary, secondary and focused assessment of neonatal patients with select emergencies
 - a. Overall assessment of the neonate. Assessment of the neonate with the following conditions:
 - i. Sepsis
 - ii. Apparent life threatening event & apnea
 - iii. Congenital heart disease
 - iv. Hypoglycemia
 - v. Emergency delivery
3. Discuss the collaborative management of neonatal patients presenting with select emergencies
 - a. Medical and nursing management of the following conditions:
 - i. Sepsis
 - ii. Apparent life threatening event & apnea
 - iii. Congenital heart disease
 - iv. Hypoglycemia
 - v. Emergency delivery