

Emergency Preparedness Education and Exercises: Are You Ready?

Speaker: Connie Kraft

Identify potential hazards resulting in a mass casualty event.

Identify the need for a comprehensive emergency management plan for a hospital and specifically emergency department.

Discuss the role of the emergency department within the hospital incident command system.

Identify internal and external resources necessary to manage a given disaster event.

Participate in a break out group based on a functional need for an event.

Participate in a table top exercise to manage a mass casualty event affecting an emergency department.