Dear Emergency Department Nurse,

When I think of Emergency Nurses, I think of everyday heroes. Like many, I grew up learning to love Emergency Nursing. Whether it was in the trauma bay, or in triage, I got to see the different types of patients that Emergency Nurses cared for on a daily basis. Everything about our role excites me. More than our work, however, Emergency Nurses have such a unique bond. It is the spirit of these characteristics of a Emergency Nurse that brings us together for Setting the Pace 2017.

At Setting the Pace 2016, we reviewed our evaluations, saw what worked, and what did not work. As a group, we worked hard to seek out speakers and topics to challenge our attendees to learn and bring back knowledge to their facilities to promote "Safe Practice and Safe Care." This year, our speakers range from nationally known speakers who have represented Emergency Nursing across the nation, Advanced Practice Nurses, and leaders in Emergency Medicine. We have expanded our topics to cover different topics including infection control, advanced practice, leadership, and critical care pharmacology. We sought out high acuity but low volume topics to ever better prepare our attendees to meet the needs of patients who come to their door.

The Setting the Pace conference is always a wonderful opportunity for Emergency Nurses to unite and reinvigorate their passion for Emergency Nursing. It takes a special person to be an Emergency Nurse, and these two days allow for knowledge sharing, networking, and the ability to check out new innovations and products.

Whether you're looking to make new contacts, learn something new, or meet up with old friends, Setting the Pace allows for opportunities to work with Emergency Nurses from all over the world. So join us on April 27th and April 28th at the Holiday Inn in Saratoga Springs!

With much respect and admiration,

Andrew Wong, BSN, RN, CEN, CPEN, CCRN-K

Conference Sessions

Thursday, April 27, 2017

Leadership Pre-session: 0730-1130 | Creating A Healthy Work Environment and Engaging the Nursing Workforce for Success

Kate B. O'Neill, MSN, RN

Led by Kate O'Neill, Director of Clinical Operations of the Emergency Medicine Service Line at Northwell Health, this session will be a work session, information sharing opportunity for current and future nurse leaders, coordinators, and educators. Staffing, staff education, regulations, metrics, and satisfaction initiatives, are some of the group determined topics to be discussed. Nurse leaders often transition quickly and knowledge not shared can be lost. The group will strive to provide support and foster ideas for these challenging careers.

Clinical Pre-session: 0730-1130 | Pharmacology Potpourri in the ED

Nicole M. Acquisto, Pharm D. , BCPS

Many large EDs have pharmacists on site, leading to the importance they play in our team approach to patient care. EDs without a pharmacist are now realizing the importance of the interaction with a pharmacist in our rapidly changing environment. This is your chance to have both education and the support of an ED pharmacist. Nicole is a Assistant Professor at the University of Rochester Medical Center Department of Emergency Medicine running their Emergency Medicine Pharmacy Residency. Information about critical interactions, special points of administration,, new drugs, sepsis protocols will be discussed. And attendees will receive a special opportunity to submit questions in advance to assure your needs are met with this review!!

1245-1300 | Welcome and Opening Remarks

Join us in kicking off #SettingThePace2017! We are excited to see everyone ready to change the face of Emergency Nursing!

Group Session: 1300-1415 | Is your ED ready for kids?

Sally K. Snow, BSN, RN, CPEN, FAEN

Explore the new state and national initiatives to address the gaps in the care of pediatric patients in our ED. Children are often our most challenging patients and as newer and less experienced staff begin to populate our EDs, education and preparedness are the big challenges. Join Sally, a director at the Emergency Nurses Association board of directors in learning how to care for this population! Learn who is driving the key goals and how to stay involved and ready.

#SETTINGTHEPACE2017

Thursday, April 27, 2017

Concurrent Session 1: 1430-1545 | The scariest time in the ED: When the patient has no airway...

Andrew Wong, BSN, RN, CEN, CPEN, CCRN-K

Almost every algorithm always focuses on airway primarily because without one we have no life. How do we manage a difficult airway in our ED's? Is it just a provider issue? No. Airway management is a team sport! Come learn how to manage a difficult airway, the pearls to RSI, and other airway management techniques!

Concurrent Session 2: 1430-1545 | Is your next career transition in Advanced Practice?

Advanced Practice Panel

Theresa Campo, DNP, FNP-C, ENP-BC, FAANP

Paula Fessler, MSN, MBA, FNP-BC

Marylou Killian, DNP, RN, FNP-BC, CEN, FAEN

Andrew Rotjan, MSN, RN, FNP-BC, ENP, CPEN, EMT-P, CCHSC

Have you thought about working in the emergency department or an urgent cares center as a nurse practitioner? Come join Emergency nurse practitioner leaders to discuss current issues in scope of practice, education, in certification. Learn about the paths available to obtain the needed knowledge and skills, and to validate that you possess the competencies that employers are seeking when hiring advanced practice clinicians into the emergency department.

Concurrent Session 3: 1430-1545 | Medical Causes of Delirium

Stephen Gomez, MD, FACEP

When the patient has psychotic behavior, is there a medical cause? What are some of the more difficult or less frequently seen differential diagnoses? And when your patient with a known psychosis diagnosis is having an escalation, could there be a medical cause? Join Dr. Gomez in learning more about the evaluation for the medical causes of delirium and directed treatment.

1600-1800 | Grand Opening Exhibit Area

Come join us for snacks and drinks in our exhibit space! Create new memories with each other! Network with your old friends, make new ones! Come check out the new products and thank our vendors for supporting the NYS ENA! Feeling lucky? Support ENA through our many different raffles!

0730-0830 | Breakfast with the Exhibitors

Join us in the exhibitor hall for breakfast with our vendors! Make contacts for information you need for your own departments. Stop to see what new technologies and services are out there!

Concurrent Session 1: 0830-0945 | Chest X-Ray Interpretation

Teresa Campo, DNP, FNP-C, ENP-BC, FAANP

Is the line in the right place? How deep is my tube? Does my patient have a pneumothorax? Join Teresa Campo in learning the essentials to the Chest X-Ray Interpretation. Learn pearls to ensure we are delivering the correct interventions and care for our patients!

Concurrent Session 2: 0830-0945 | Nursing Response to the Sexual Assault Patient in the Acute Care Setting

Barbara Ruvolo, BSN, RN, CEN, PCEN, SANE-A

Are you ready to care for a sexual assault patient in your Emergency Department? This complex patient population requires more than just skills and empathy. Join Barbara in learning about how to prepare for these patients and what other resources are available to ensure care for these patients in their times of need.

Concurrent Session 3: 0830-0945 | Technical Advances in Implantable Cardiac Device Therapies

Carol Patrick, RNFA, ACNP-BC, CCRN, NEA-BC

As cardiac care is advancing are you ready to meet the complex needs of your cardiac patients? With new devices out on the market and different therapies, will you be up for the challenge? Join Carol, who is a Electrophysiology Nurse Practitioner by trade, in learning about how to care for these patients!

Come check out the new products and thank our vendors for supporting the NYS ENA! Feeling lucky? Support ENA through our many different raffles!

Group Session: 1030-1145 | Babies Behaving Badly

Deena Brecher MSN, RN, ACNS-BC, CEN, CPEN

Do the little ones scare you? Are you able to meet the needs of our smallest patients? Join us in some case based learning with Deena Brecher regarding one of our most vulnerable patient populations we meet in the ED. Learn topics related to symptoms of surgical emergencies in neonates, to assessment and treatment of neonatal emergencies!

1145-1300 | Awards Luncheon

Come join us for lunch and celebrate our award winners for 2017!

Group Session: 1300-1430 | Infectious Diseases in the ED: What SHOULD concern you the most?

Ernest J. Clements, MSN, RN, CIC

Join us in learning how to handle different infectious diseases in our Emergency Departments. An Infection Preventionist with the New York State Department of Health will help us learn how to be prepared for infectious disease cases! Come learn about new guidelines and precautions we must take!

Group Session: 1445-1600 | "My patients are fine... I'm going to lunch." How our Behaviors Impact Patient Safety

Deena Brecher, MSN, RN, ACNS-BC, CEN, CPEN

Our bedside behaviors are impacting patient care in ways that can challenge our goals of safe practice and safe care. Be it hand off, use of social media, horizontal violence, all of these ultimately reaches our patients. This lecture will stimulate and inspire you as you continue providing safe patient care in the ED.

1600-1700 | Closing Remarks and Basket Raffle

Join us as we wrap up and say good bye in our exhibit area. Food and drinks available!

Evidenced Based Practice

NYSENA is seeking research and evidence-based practice abstracts that address emergency care issues including clinical, education and injury prevention for presentation at the 2016 conference. The paper and poster sessions are focused on topics that are of interest and importance to nurses, managers, educators, researchers and others who practice in emergency care settings.

Abstracts must reflect either completed projects or projects in the final stages of completion with results available for inclusion in the poster presentation. Suggested topics include, but are not limited to, abstracts which address clinical practice, education, research, injury prevention, quality & patient safety, trauma, government affairs, pediatrics, telephone triage, emergency medical services, forensics, etc. Authors may submit abstracts for more than one paper and/or poster.

ENA prefers to accept posters and papers from a variety of authors. A primary presenter is the individual who registers for the conference (registration is required) and who presents the paper or poster at the conference. This presenter will have their poster hung at the conference but the presenter does not need to stay at poster, they may attend classes at the conference.

Poster Awards Program: Sponsored by the NYSENA, the Poster Awards Program is open to all authors of presented posters (both ENA members and non-members). Two awards will be given out – one for the best Research poster, and one for the best Evidence-based Practice poster. To be eligible for this award, the poster must be set up at the start of the conference - NO exceptions.

Additional information is available. Contact conference@nysena.org.

Deadline: April 3, 2017 Download full guidelines at NYSENA.org
