Dear Emergency Department Nurse,

I would like to invite you to attend the New York State Emergency Nurses annual conference, Setting the Pace 2018 in Saratoga, NY. Our role as emergency nurses brings daily challenges. To grow as a nurse we sometimes need to step outside our comfort zone to meet those challenges. Emergency Nursing is exciting and constantly changing. I hope that this conference provides you with the knowledge to meet those challenges. Emergency Nurses have such a unique bond, regardless of where they work. It is the spirit of these characteristics of an Emergency Nurse that brings us together for Setting the Pace 2018.

We reviewed our evaluations after Setting the Pace 2017, saw what worked, and what did not work. For 2018, the conference committee had a goal to bring speakers and topics that reflect the current changes and challenges facing emergency nurses to promote "Safe Practice, Safe Care".

This year, our speakers range from nationally known speakers who have represented Emergency Nursing across the nation, Advanced Practice Nurses, and leaders in Emergency Medicine. We have expanded our topics to cover areas such as pediatrics, trauma, stroke, mental health, and advanced practice. We sought out high acuity but low volume topics to better prepare attendees to meet the needs of our patients.

The Setting the Pace conference is always a wonderful opportunity for Emergency Nurses to unite and reinvigorate their passion for Emergency Nursing. It takes a special person to be an Emergency Nurse, and these two days allow for knowledge sharing, networking, and the ability to check out new innovations and products.

Whether you're looking to make new contacts, learn something new, or meet up with old friends, Setting the Pace allows for opportunities to network with Emergency Nurses from all over the State. So join us on April 19th and April 20th at the Holiday Inn in Saratoga Springs!

With much respect and admiration,

Marina

Debra Delaney, DNP, MHA, RN, CEN

Jeanne Venella, DNP, MS, CEN, CPEN

Deb Delaney and Jeanne Venella will present an ESI triage refresher and provide the opportunity for ESI triage competency validation. Learn how to manage challenges in Triage. I have ESI 2 patients in the waiting room, help! Sharpen your triage skills.

Conference Pre-session 2: 0730-1130 | Trauma Update

Cristy Meyer, MSN, RN, CEN, TCRN

Eric Cohen, RN

Cristy Meyer and Eric Cohen will update us on the latest injury trauma care strategies and trends including trauma transfer basics, conducting a “Stop the Bleed” session for session attendees, and reviewing the ACS Trauma Verification process.

Conference Pre-session 3: 0815, 0915, 1015, and 1115 | Cadaver Skills Lab: Calling all nurses to update your skills!

Teleflex Cadaver lab to manage difficult airway.

E-ZIO access

Intraosseous access- tips, techniques, maintenance and troubleshooting

Conference Opening

1245-1300 | Welcome and Opening Remarks

Join us in kicking off #SettingThePace2018!

We are excited to continue working together to change the face of Emergency Nursing!

Group Session: 1300-1415 | First the Millennials: What's Next?

Deb Delaney, DNP, MHA, RN, CEN

Compare the generations of employees in health care today and recognize differences that exist. Discuss the new generation about to enter the workplace and identify the opportunities and challenges that they bring with them.

Thursday, April 19th, 2018

Concurrent Session 1: 1430-1545 | Alarm Fatigue

Jeanne Venella, DNP, MS, CEN, CPEN

Jeanne Venella will review the current state of alarms and impact of alarm fatigue on your practice; discuss the impact of alarm fatigue on patient safety and quality, including the many increasing causes of nuisance and false-positives; examine the (best practice) evidence-based implementation strategies for improving patient safety and explore the opportunities to manage and reduce alarms in your environment.

Concurrent Session 2: 1430-1545 | Pediatric Abdominal Evaluation

Theresa Campo, DNP, FNP-C, ENP-BC, FAANP

Theresa Campo will discuss how to initiate a relationship with the patient and parent/caregiver in preparation for assessing the pediatric patient. She will differentiate assessment techniques based on patients age and utilize those assessment techniques to accurately evaluate the pediatric patient in the ED.

Case review will include pediatric patients: a 2-year-old, a 6- year-old, a 10-year-old, and a teenager

Concurrent Session 3: 1430-1545 | When Work Follows You Home

Dylan Kellogg, MD, FAWM

Emergency situations occur without warning - any time, any place and when we are least equipped to manage them.

Prepare yourself by developing a systematic approach to emergency situations. Dr. Kellogg will help you discover the resources you might have available when you need to improvise.

1545-1800 | Grand Opening Exhibit Area

Come join us for snacks and drinks in our exhibit space! Create new memories with each other! Network with your old friends, or make new ones! Come check out the new products and thank our vendors for supporting the NYS ENA! Feeling lucky? Support ENA through our various fund-raising activities.

Conference Sessions

Friday, April 20th, 2018

0730-0830 | Breakfast with the Exhibitors

Join us in the exhibitor hall for breakfast with our vendors! Make contacts for information you need for your own departments. Stop to see what new technologies and services are out there!

Concurrent Session 1: 0830-0945 | The 'SKIN'ny on Rashes in the ED Christine Verni, EdD, FNP-BC, APRN

Patients who present to the ED with cutaneous conditions such as rashes are often a unique assessment challenge. The condition might be simply managed, profoundly complex, and/or potentially lethal.

Christine Verni will discuss how careful assessment; accurate documentation of your findings and rapid identification of deadly conditions is paramount in providing excellent patient care.

Concurrent Session 2: 0830-0945 | Physical Signs and Symptoms of Mental Illness Louis Teitelbaum, MD, FAPA

Patients present to the ED with a variety of complaints and illnesses. Signs and symptoms associated with these illnesses may be physical or psychological in origin. It is often difficult to determine whether the illness is physical, psychological, or a combination of both.

Dr. Teitelbaum will provide us with some guidelines for assessing the patient for underlying mental health issues that are causing or complicating physical illnesses

Concurrent Session 3: 0830-0945 | Neurotic about Neurons Mary Ann Teeter, MEd, FNP-C, CEN, CCRN, SCRn, FAEN

Mary Ann Teeter will provide us with the most recent updates in the identification, care, and ongoing management of patients who are at risk of stroke or who have suffered a stroke.

Included in the discussion will be current treatment strategies and a review of case studies that demonstrate positive outcomes from utilizing those treatments.

#SETTINGTHEPAGE2018

Evidenced Based Practice

NYSENA is seeking research and evidence-based practice abstracts that address emergency care issues including clinical, education and injury prevention for presentation at the 2018 conference. The paper and poster sessions are focused on topics that are of interest and importance to nurses, managers, educators, researchers and others who practice in emergency care settings.

Abstracts must reflect either completed projects or projects in the final stages of completion with results available for inclusion in the poster presentation. Suggested topics include, but are not limited to, abstracts that address clinical practice, education, research, injury prevention, quality & patient safety, trauma, government affairs, pediatrics, telephone triage, emergency medical services, forensics, etc. Authors may submit abstracts for more than one paper and/or poster.

ENA prefers to accept posters and papers from a variety of authors. A primary presenter is the individual who registers for the conference (registration is required) and who presents the paper or poster at the conference. This presenter will have their poster hung at the conference but the presenter does not need to stay at poster, they may attend classes at the conference.

Poster Awards Program: Sponsored by the NYSENA, the Poster Awards Program is open to all authors of presented posters (both ENA members and non-members). Two awards will be given out – one for the best Research poster, and one for the best Evidence-based Practice poster. To be eligible for this award, the poster must be set up at the start of the conference - NO exceptions

Additional information is available. Contact conference@nyseना.ना.
