

Emergency Department Violence Prevention Panel Member

Marilyn Dollinger, DNS, FNP, RN

President, ANA-NY

Dr. Marilyn L. Dollinger is Professor Emeritus at the Wegmans School of Nursing, St. John Fisher College in Rochester, New York. After 15 years practicing in adult critical care, Dr. Dollinger moved to academia. She held both faculty and academic leadership positions, teaching across undergraduate, masters, and doctoral programs. She is a graduate of the University of Toronto, Russell Sage College, and the University at Buffalo.

Dr. Dollinger is an active advocate and lecturer for legislative, regulatory, and health policy issues. Dr. Dollinger is President of the American Nurses Association-New York, a past member of several other regional and state nursing organization public policy/legislative committees and political action committees, and community not-for-profit boards. She is a member of the Rochester Regional Health Extended Services Board, past-Chair of the Common Ground Health Board, a regional multi-stakeholder health research and planning organization, and past Co-chair of the Regional Healthcare Workforce Commission.