

Patrick Byrne is an emergency management consultant assisting healthcare systems prepare, mitigate, response, and recovery from disasters.

Pat has been a nurse for 30 years in 2024. The first half of his career was at stretcher side at Highland Hospital in Rochester NY; the second half was with the New York State Department of Health.

Pat is the president for New York State Emergency Nurses Association.

Pat has taken up long distance running in the past three years and looks forward to participating in events around the globe. Pat and his family enjoy summers in an 80 year old cottage on the shores of Lake Erie.